Dear Israel:

Thanks to you and Contractors Exam School, I am now a General Contractor !!!

I passed my exam on the first try, and was extremely pleased with the results. I would like to thank you for all of your follow-up and assistance throughout my course work. You were always readily accessible. and very responsive in to inquires and request.

Additionally, I wanted to commend the instructors at Contractors Exam School for having properly prepared me for what was unquestionably the most challenging exam I have ever encountered, So demanding was this exam, it overshadowed anything I had ever encountered. While obtaining my bachelor of Science degree from Michigan State University, or while obtaining both my Florida Real Estate Broker and Florida Residential Appraiser's licenses. Without the benefit of the CES seminar, I am absolutely convinced that I would Not have passed the GC exam.

Anyone seeking a construction license would be foolish not to invest the nominal additional dollars into a CES course. It's the best "insurance policy" I ever bought! After taking that exam, the thought of having to take it a second (or third ) time is staggering In retrospect I would gladly have paid DOUBLE your course fee to pass that exam on the first try, When you consider the cost alone of having to retake the exam (exam fee, travel, hotel, meal, lost work) not to mention the mental anguish and the lost opportunity of not having the license, I am no-brainer.

Thank you for providing a course, and a system, that truly works!

Sincerely
